

Use the handy grid or print out your information and staple here.

Register to vote at <http://www.beavoter.org>

1

Who is going to be on my ballot?

State Search
<https://www.nasire.org>

Project Vote Smart
<http://vote-smart.org>

Search for the "Secretary of State" on your state government home page for sample ballot information.

2

What are their positions on the issues?

Project Vote Smart (NPAT)
<http://vote-smart.org/index.phtml>

Voter.com candidate links
<http://www.voter.com>

The National Political Awareness Test voluntarily solicits candidate positions on a variety of current issues.

3

Can I get their voting records?

Project Vote Smart
<http://vote-smart.org/index.phtml>

Voting records are probably only available for your federal lawmakers at the present time.

THOMAS
<http://thomas.loc.gov>

Don't just look to see IF your candidates are taking money from PACs, but WHICH ONES they are taking money from.

Center for Responsive Politics
<http://www.opensecrets.org>

Federal Election Commission
<http://www.fec.gov>

Where is their money coming from?

4

5

What have they said in the news?

Total News
<http://www.totalnews.com>

Search for the candidate's name AND the issues you care about.

DNet local news listings
<http://www.dnet.org>

Cybercitizen - How to Use Your Computer to Fight for ALL the Issues You Care About by Christopher Kush (St. Martin's Press, 2000) is a practical, nonpartisan guide that cuts through the glut of useless information on the Internet and shows you how to connect with the people, the organizations, and the information that power America's government. With insightful explanations of the powerful new ways to influence lawmakers, Cybercitizen is a political start-up kit for the new Millennium.

Available online at <http://www.cyber-citizen.org> or wherever books are sold.

Office these candidates are running for:

Issues that matter most to me:

1 The Candidates (include party)	_____	_____	_____
2 Their Promises and Positions
3 Previous Votes on My Issues
4 Campaign Funders
5 Quotes and Other News
Who gets my vote?	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>